12. I am aware the RUNMAGEDDON event will be filmed with a drone camera. The pilot has knowledge and technical capabilities to ensure safety. In case of a mistake or technical difficulties I will take precautions and not touch or come near the drone and the Participant shall do the same. In case of the drone falling I will make sure the Participant keeps their head safe. I relinquish any potential claims concerning the drone.

IMAGE - Information:

The race will be filmed and photographed and there exists a possibility your image may be used. Publishing the participants' image is used for promoting physical activity and convincing others to also participate in such events. Photographs and recordings are done in a spontaneous manner by hired people that can't choose specific people to capture. Their goal is to present the most interesting moments of the race regardless of which participant is visible.

The publication of participants' image is based on the permission of the filmed or photographed person. Such permission is specified in art. 81 act 1 sent. 1 of the copyright law and neighbouring rights. The permission to publish one's image is a declaration of will as it is understood in art. 60 of the civil code. Declaration of will – the permission to publish one's image cannot be freely withdrawn after the conclusion of an event. According to art. 61 § 1 sent. 2 of the civil code states that a permission can be withdrawn if it has been delivered at the time of signing this document or earlier.

RODO: Processing of personal data (your image) is conducted according to art. 6 act 1 let. a) GDPR. It works in accordance with the following permission, which can be withdrawn at any time.

By signing this statement I declare a full permission to take pictures and film the participant and to publish such materials on the organiser's website, as well as the websites of the organiser's partners and sponsors (updated list can be found on the organiser's website) in order to popularise sports and encourage people to take part in further events

(legal basis: art. 81 sent. 1 of the copyright law and neighbouring rights and art. 6 act 1 pt. a) GDPR).

I am aware my permission can we withdrawn at any time by sending an email to iod@runmageddon.pl with "permission withdrawal + date of the event" in the subject. I will also point to published pictures that concern my decision.

13. I declare I will concede on behalf of the Participant the time measuring chip when finishing the RUNMAGEDDON race. I am aware the fine for losing the chip is 20 PLN. In case the Participant would not finish or not participate (after taking the Participant's bundle), I shall concede the chip in the event's office or at the finish line.

I declare I read the information clause concerning processing of personal data, available on www.runmageddon.pl
I declare I understand the contents of this document and I fully accept it by putting my legible signature below.
